Approve Plans For Additions To Ten Schools

Ten Torrance elementary schools are in line for more facilities soon, as the Board of Education Friday night let bids for additions to five schools and approved preliminary plans for additions at five others.

A $568,000 bid by the A. H. Dohrman Co. for additions at WALTERIA, EDISON, STEELE, MADRONA, and TORRANCE ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS was approved, subject to the State Department of Finance. Preliminary plans for additions at ANZA, ARLINGTON, LINCOLN, and NEWTON SCHOOLS were given a green light, with officials hoping to let bids for these next summer.

The state must approve the $568,000 bid, which was slightly higher than expected on certain site work needed for the additions. The state allocates funds for the projects.

On the second group of additions, final plans must be drawn. Construction probably will start next summer. In this group, four classrooms each are slated at Anza, Arlington, Lincoln, Newton, and Sepulveda Schools.
